7. Damages to persons & property insurance

The Contractor shall be responsible for any type of injury to the persons and any damage to the structural or decorative part of property of the Principal Employer (which may happen due to the operation or negligence of contractor or of his employees). The injury or damage may arise during course of providing of canteen services because of carelessness, accident or any other cause. This clause shall be considered as valid & held to include inter-alia any damage to buildings, whether immediately adjacent or otherwise, any damage to road/streets, footpaths or structure in the complex. The Contractor shall indemnify the Principal Employer and hold him (Principal Employer) harmless/ not responsible in respect of all & any expenses arising from any such injury or damage to persons or property as aforesaid and also in respect of any claim made in respect of injury or damage under any Acts of Government otherwise and also in respect of any award of compensation of damages consequent upon such claim.

8. Insurance - by taking all risk policy

The Contractor shall indemnify the Principal Employer against all claims which may be made against the Principal Employer by any member of the public and shall at his own expenses arrange within 30 (thirty) days to effect and maintain, until the virtual completion of the contract period from an approved Agency, a policy of insurance worth annual estimated cost of work, in the joint names of the Principal Employer and the contractor against such risks and deposit such policy with the Principal Employer within the 30 (thirty) days of the start of the contract. The contractor shall also indemnify the Principal Employer in respect of any costs, charges or expense arising out of any claims or proceedings and also in respect of any award of compensation of damage arising there from, the Principal Employer shall be at liberty and hereby empowered to deduct the amount of any damages, compensation cost, charges and expenses arising or from or in respect of any such claim or damage from any sums due or to become due to the contractor (including Performance Security Deposit). The Contractor will himself be responsible for any payment or claim of his employee. He will ensure that such litigations do not affect this contract in any way.

Unless otherwise instructed by the Principal Employer, the contractor on signing the contract shall insure the designated premises of DDCA and keep them insured, until the virtual completion of the work against loss or damage by fire and/or earthquake or all other natural calamity by purchasing a Contractor’s All Risk Policy including the Workmen Compensation for an overall amount equivalent to annual cost of work, from any office of the Insurance Company of Govt. of India in the joint name of the Principal Employer and the Contractor. The premium to the Insurance Company shall be borne by the Contractor. Such policy shall cover the designated premises of the Principal Employer, his services and shall not cover any property of the Contractor. Contractor shall deposit the policy and receipts for the premium with the Principal Employer within 30 (Thirty) days from the date of signing of the contract. The contractor has to assign that policy in favour of Principal Employer.

In default of the contractor insuring as provided above, the Principal Employer may so insure and deduct the premiums paid from any money due, or which may become due to the contractor.

9. Inspection and Supervision

The facility of Catering Services will be inspected by Principal Employer or his Authorized Representative from time to time. The directions offered by the Principal Employer or his Authorized Representative shall have to be implemented by the contractor. The raw materials brought by the contractor for cooking of food items shall be inspected Principal Employer or his Authorized Representative at random before the same are used for cooking of finished products.

10. Failure by Contractor to comply with Instructions and termination of Contract

- a) The Principal Employer reserves the right to terminate the contract if it has been found that the contractor is not complying with his instructions after giving a notice of one month during the probationary period effective from taking over charge of Catering Services by the Contractor.
- b) The Contract can be terminated by either party i.e. DDCA or the Contractor by giving three months notice to the other party extendable by mutual agreement till alternate arrangements are made. On termination of contract, the Contractor shall hand over all the equipments/furniture/articles etc. supplied by DDCA in good working condition.
- c) Further, Principal Employer may at any time issue notices for termination of the contract without assigning any reason whatsoever, it may be. However, such notices shall be applicable from the date of their receipt by the Contractor. On the expiry of the period as mentioned in the notices, the Principal Employer shall issues final letter of termination of contract.

In the event of termination, pursuant to above paragraph of this clause:-

- Contractor on the instructions of Principal Employer has to cancel supply orders or work orders, which he might have placed with the other vendors.

11. Recourse

Principal Employer shall have recourse for any cost(s), claim(s), demand(s), proceeding(s), damage(s) & expense(s) whatsoever arising out of or in connection with failure of contractor to perform any of the obligations under the terms of this contract either from the Payments due or Performance Security.

12. Terms of Payment

- a) The payments for the food to be served at the restaurant and the bar shall be made by the staff member/visitor themselves and not by DDCA. However, for official event/meetings/seminars/conferences or any other events in and outside DDCA premises, the payment shall be made by DDCA as per the rates finalized in the bidding process at the time of entering into the contract.
- b) The Contractor shall provide the food items to members and their guest and staff members of DDCA against the debit card only as issued by the DDCA. The Contractor is prohibited to accept cash for providing food items in the restaurant and DDCA premises to the guests, members and staff members of DDCA.
- c) All payments and receipts would be rounded off, i.e. paise 50 or above will be rounded off to the nearest higher rupee and paise less than 50 shall be ignored.
- d) The Contractor shall raise an invoice fortnightly to the Principal Employer regarding the food services made during that period and payment shall be made accordingly by the Principal Employer.
- e) The Principal Employer will charge 10% of the revenue earned by the Contractor through its invoices raised fortnightly, as Administrative charges for the maintenance of the Club.

13. Period of Contract

Initially the contract agreement will be entered into for 36 months, which can be extended at the discretion of the Contractor and Principal Employer as mutually agreed between them. The first three months from the date of taking over charge of restaurant in respect to catering services from DDCA, shall be considered as probationary period. The rates of any of the items shall not be changed / modified during the contract period. However, increase in rates due to inflation can be considered by DDCA and decided as mutually agreed, after two years from the initiation of the Contract.

14. Laws Governing the Contract

- a) The contract shall be governed by the Indian laws for the time being in force. However, contractor has to comply with all the applicable labour laws in connection with catering services. AGREEMENT

This Agreement made on this day i.e. _____ between Delhi & District Cricket Association, a company duly incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956, having its registered office at Ferozshah Kotla, New Delhi -110002, India (hereinafter called the “DDCA” and/or Organisation) of the ONE PART and M/s _____ of the OTHER PART (hereinafter called “Caterers”) and whereas the Organization is desirous for engaging a caterer for providing catering and restaurant services as detailed in the Expression of Interest Document for the Personnel and guests of DDCA. Whereas it is decided to grant a Contract (not being a lease) to the Caterer to prepare and serve the items listed in Letter of Award to the personnel and visitors in the restaurant, office complex, matches and in the seminars/conferences on agreed Terms & Conditions as described in Expression of Interest Document, It is hereby confirmed as having been agreed to between the respective parties as under:-

1. That the Caterer has been granted the contract to provide catering and restaurant services in the restaurant of DDCA, Ferozshah Kotla, New Delhi – 110002 initially for a period of three years w.e.f. _____ on the terms & conditions contained in the Expression of Interest Document, Letter of Award of the Contract and this agreement read together. If during this period, the performance is found satisfactory, the contract may be renewed for further specified period on the existing or mutually agreed to terms & conditions. The contract is also terminable by serving a Notice of period of Three months by either party on other party.
2. That the items served by the Caterer shall be of good quality and hygienic prepared in the clean environment. The Principal Employer or his authorized representatives may at any time enter the kitchen area allotted to the caterer for the purpose of this contract and take away samples of raw material, semi-prepared or fully prepared eatable items free of cost for the purpose of inspection, trial or analysis, and the decision of the authorities of the DDCA with regard to the desirability or quality of the food articles offered for consumption shall be final. If any item of the menu/provision of food is found defective or not fit for use/consumption, the Principal Employer may either- (i) issue warning; and / or (ii) get the said raw material/items destroyed and ask the Caterer to purchase fresh stocks, without any payment of compensation to the Contractor for the discarded material/items.

3. If, however, this problem recurs in spite of warning having been issued, the Organization reserves the right to impose financial penalty as decided by the Principal Employer or otherwise cancel the contract without giving any notice. The organization may, if consider necessary, revise the rates only after two years of the contract in regard to the items of food/eatables and drinks and till such time that the revised rates become operative, the caterer shall charge the existing rates.
4. That the Caterer shall procure milk from the sources supplying good quality milk e.g. Amul, Mother Dairy. Etc. The security deposit to Mother Dairy/Amul if any, will be paid by the Caterer himself.
5. That the Caterer shall not make any additions or alterations in the premises allotted to him for providing catering services.
6. That the Caterer has agreed to keep the restaurant including kitchen, stores and and its surrounding area neat, clean and tidy at all times and according to the health/hygienic conditions bye-laws of the Government/Statutory body. In the event of violation of any of the aforesaid bye-laws in and around the restaurant, the Caterer shall be responsible for any penalty/fine imposed by the concerned authorities.
7. That in the event of Health Department or any other Government/Statutory authorities taking samples of raw material used by the Caterer and those samples are not found fit/up to the mark for human consumption, the caterer shall be fully responsible for any fine/penalty imposed or legal recourse taken by such authorities.
8. That the Contractor has agreed to pay charges for consumption of cooking gas and electricity on actual basis in the restaurant and designated area whereas, for the first one year from the date of contract, the electricity be provided free of cost by the DDCA to the Caterer.
9. That the Caterer has agreed to provide sufficient number of cooks, waiters and other support staff in the kitchen and restaurant and shall take all reasonable precautions to ensure that these workers attire themselves properly while on duty and are civilized, polite, sober and honest in their dealings with the personnel of DDCA, its members and their guests. He shall also employ only those workers whose antecedents have been verified by the police and are medically fit in all respects.
10. That any employee deployed by the Caterer in the premises becomes liable for suspension or dismissal by the Organization due to his/her actions, disobedience or misconduct, the Caterer shall accept the decision of the Organization as final and abide by such decision. In such an event, the Organization shall not in any way be liable for any claim made by the concerned employee of the Caterer for wages or damages and the Caterer shall keep the authorities of DDCA indemnified.

11. The Organization will have the right to review the working of this contract from time to time and if at any time it is found that the Caterer has failed to fulfill any of the conditions of this contract or that his working is unsatisfactory, the DDCA may terminate the contract after giving the Caterer a notice for a period of three-months, but no such notice shall be necessary if the contract is terminated on the ground of service of any undesirable commodity.
12. That the Caterer will not transfer or assign any part of his interest under this contract. This contract shall also be liable to be terminated before the expiry of the period of this contract in case of death or insolvency of the Caterer.
13. That it is agreed between the parties that no interest whatsoever in the premises has been assigned by the Organization to the Caterer and the possession of the premises will always that of the Organization, even when the premises are in use or occupation of the Caterer.
14. Organization shall provide to the Caterer necessary equipment, furniture & fixtures and he shall maintain them in good condition. The Caterer shall be responsible for their maintenance.
15. The Caterer shall provide all other equipment for running the restaurant like Crockery, Cutlery, Table linen, Flower pots, Livery for the Canteen Staff and these shall be of good Quality and Standard.
16. The Caterer shall be required to procure gas refills in sufficient quantity for cooking purposes. The cooking equipments shall be provided in working condition by DDCA. However, subsequently operational & maintenance expenses will be borne by the Caterer himself. The Caterer shall be responsible for any loss/theft of the equipments provided to him by the Organization.
17. The Caterer shall also be responsible for the upkeep of equipments provided by the Organization. In case of any damage happened/made by any member, guest/employee of the DDCA to the furniture and equipments, the Caterer shall immediately inform in writing to the concerned authorities of the Organization for recovery of such losses/damages from the defaulters, failing which the Caterer shall himself be liable to pay the cost as decided by DDCA.

18. All the equipments, furniture/fixtures, including gas and electrical installation of the restaurant kitchen/dining hall shall be given to Contractor in good working condition. These shall be used carefully & cautiously by his employees. The repairs of the gas and electrical appliances shall be done by the Contractor at his own cost and nothing shall be paid by DDCA.
19. That the Caterer shall provide catering services in the events/workshops/seminars organized by DDCA outside and within the premises of DDCA at the rates mutually agreed between the Caterer and DDCA and on such terms and conditions as agreed between DDCA and Caterer.
20. That the Caterer shall provide the food thali to the employees of DDCA at subsidized rates that are mutually agreed between DDCA and Caterer and on such terms and conditions as mutually agreed between the parties.
21. That the Caterer shall maintain a suggestion book for recording suggestions for improvement of Catering Services. Such suggestions, as approved by the authorities of DDCA, shall be forthwith acted upon. The suggestion book shall be kept open for inspection by the designated authorities of DDCA.

In witness whereof the parties have put their hands to this agreement on the day aforesaid.
